dear, JoAnn, Gee, I'm all broke out when it comes to writing something in your best friends annual its so hard cause things that I'd like to say to you don't come out so easy. We both made it through the year, and sometimes I don't know how, with all our problems and all. If it wasn't for the telephone I don't think I would have lasted during those problem times. You really came through with flying colors for and your patience Vince and I would've spoke for being so blunt about me. Sometimes the truth hurts, but I think you really made me grow up a little. All those times we talked for hours on the phone trying to figure out what to do about the certain somebody named ------ and ------ How everything turned out for us I'm so glad. We

This summer you going to come over my house all the time and I mean it. Swimming, go down town and the rest will have a blast.

Later, I'm going over to Kennedy to summer school you better come to cause we're going to be the only ones from S.J.M.

You know the way I feel about you ~~so I'm sure~~ and need not say anymore then.

Love to a great girl,

DEDICATION

TO YOU, FATHER STIEGER,

We, the Senior Class,
Dedicate humbly and sincerely, THE SPIRIT OF '60,
Our annual.
The gift indeed is of itself small,
But we hope that you
Will treasure it as we treasure and appreciate the work
You have done for us in the past,
That you do now, and will continue to do in the future.

Words never do justice to a great man,
For the full importance of his life is found,
Not in the few unusual deeds,
But in the sum total of the endless prosaic concerns
Of daily life. And so it is with you.
Your worth is proved by your deeds and actions
Which almost unnoticed go on day by day
Efficiently, effectively, and perseveringly.

Though seldom seen by most of the students and Less known to many of them,
Nevertheless you are a most important figure on Our campus, directing and conducting the financial Needs and public relations,
Organizing and supervising the maintenance of the campus;
And taking care of the welfare, conveniences,
And good of the students.
Your high standing and industry
Have made San Joaquin outstanding.

Being financial administrator of San Joaquin Memorial
Is but one of your many varied duties and responsibilities.
Others include the youth work at Camp Santa Teresita,
The coordinating of the Catholic adoption and welfare
Societies in the diocese, and the pastorate of St. Genevieve's Church.

We wish to express our gratitude to you by this dedication,
For we so seldom realize the meaning of the Tremendous work which you are accomplishing because
It functions so faultlessly.

FORWARD

Students maturing in a scholastically, spiritually, socially, and athletically organized program of studies.

Prayer and play in a well-balanced and integrated plan of life.

Interests many and varied in all fields of endeavor.

Rights and responsibilities in a gratefully acknowledged and fully accepted credo.

Inspiration, imagination, industry in learning and living.

These things make up the spirit of the campus of San Joaquin Memorial and are mirrored in the Spirit of '60.

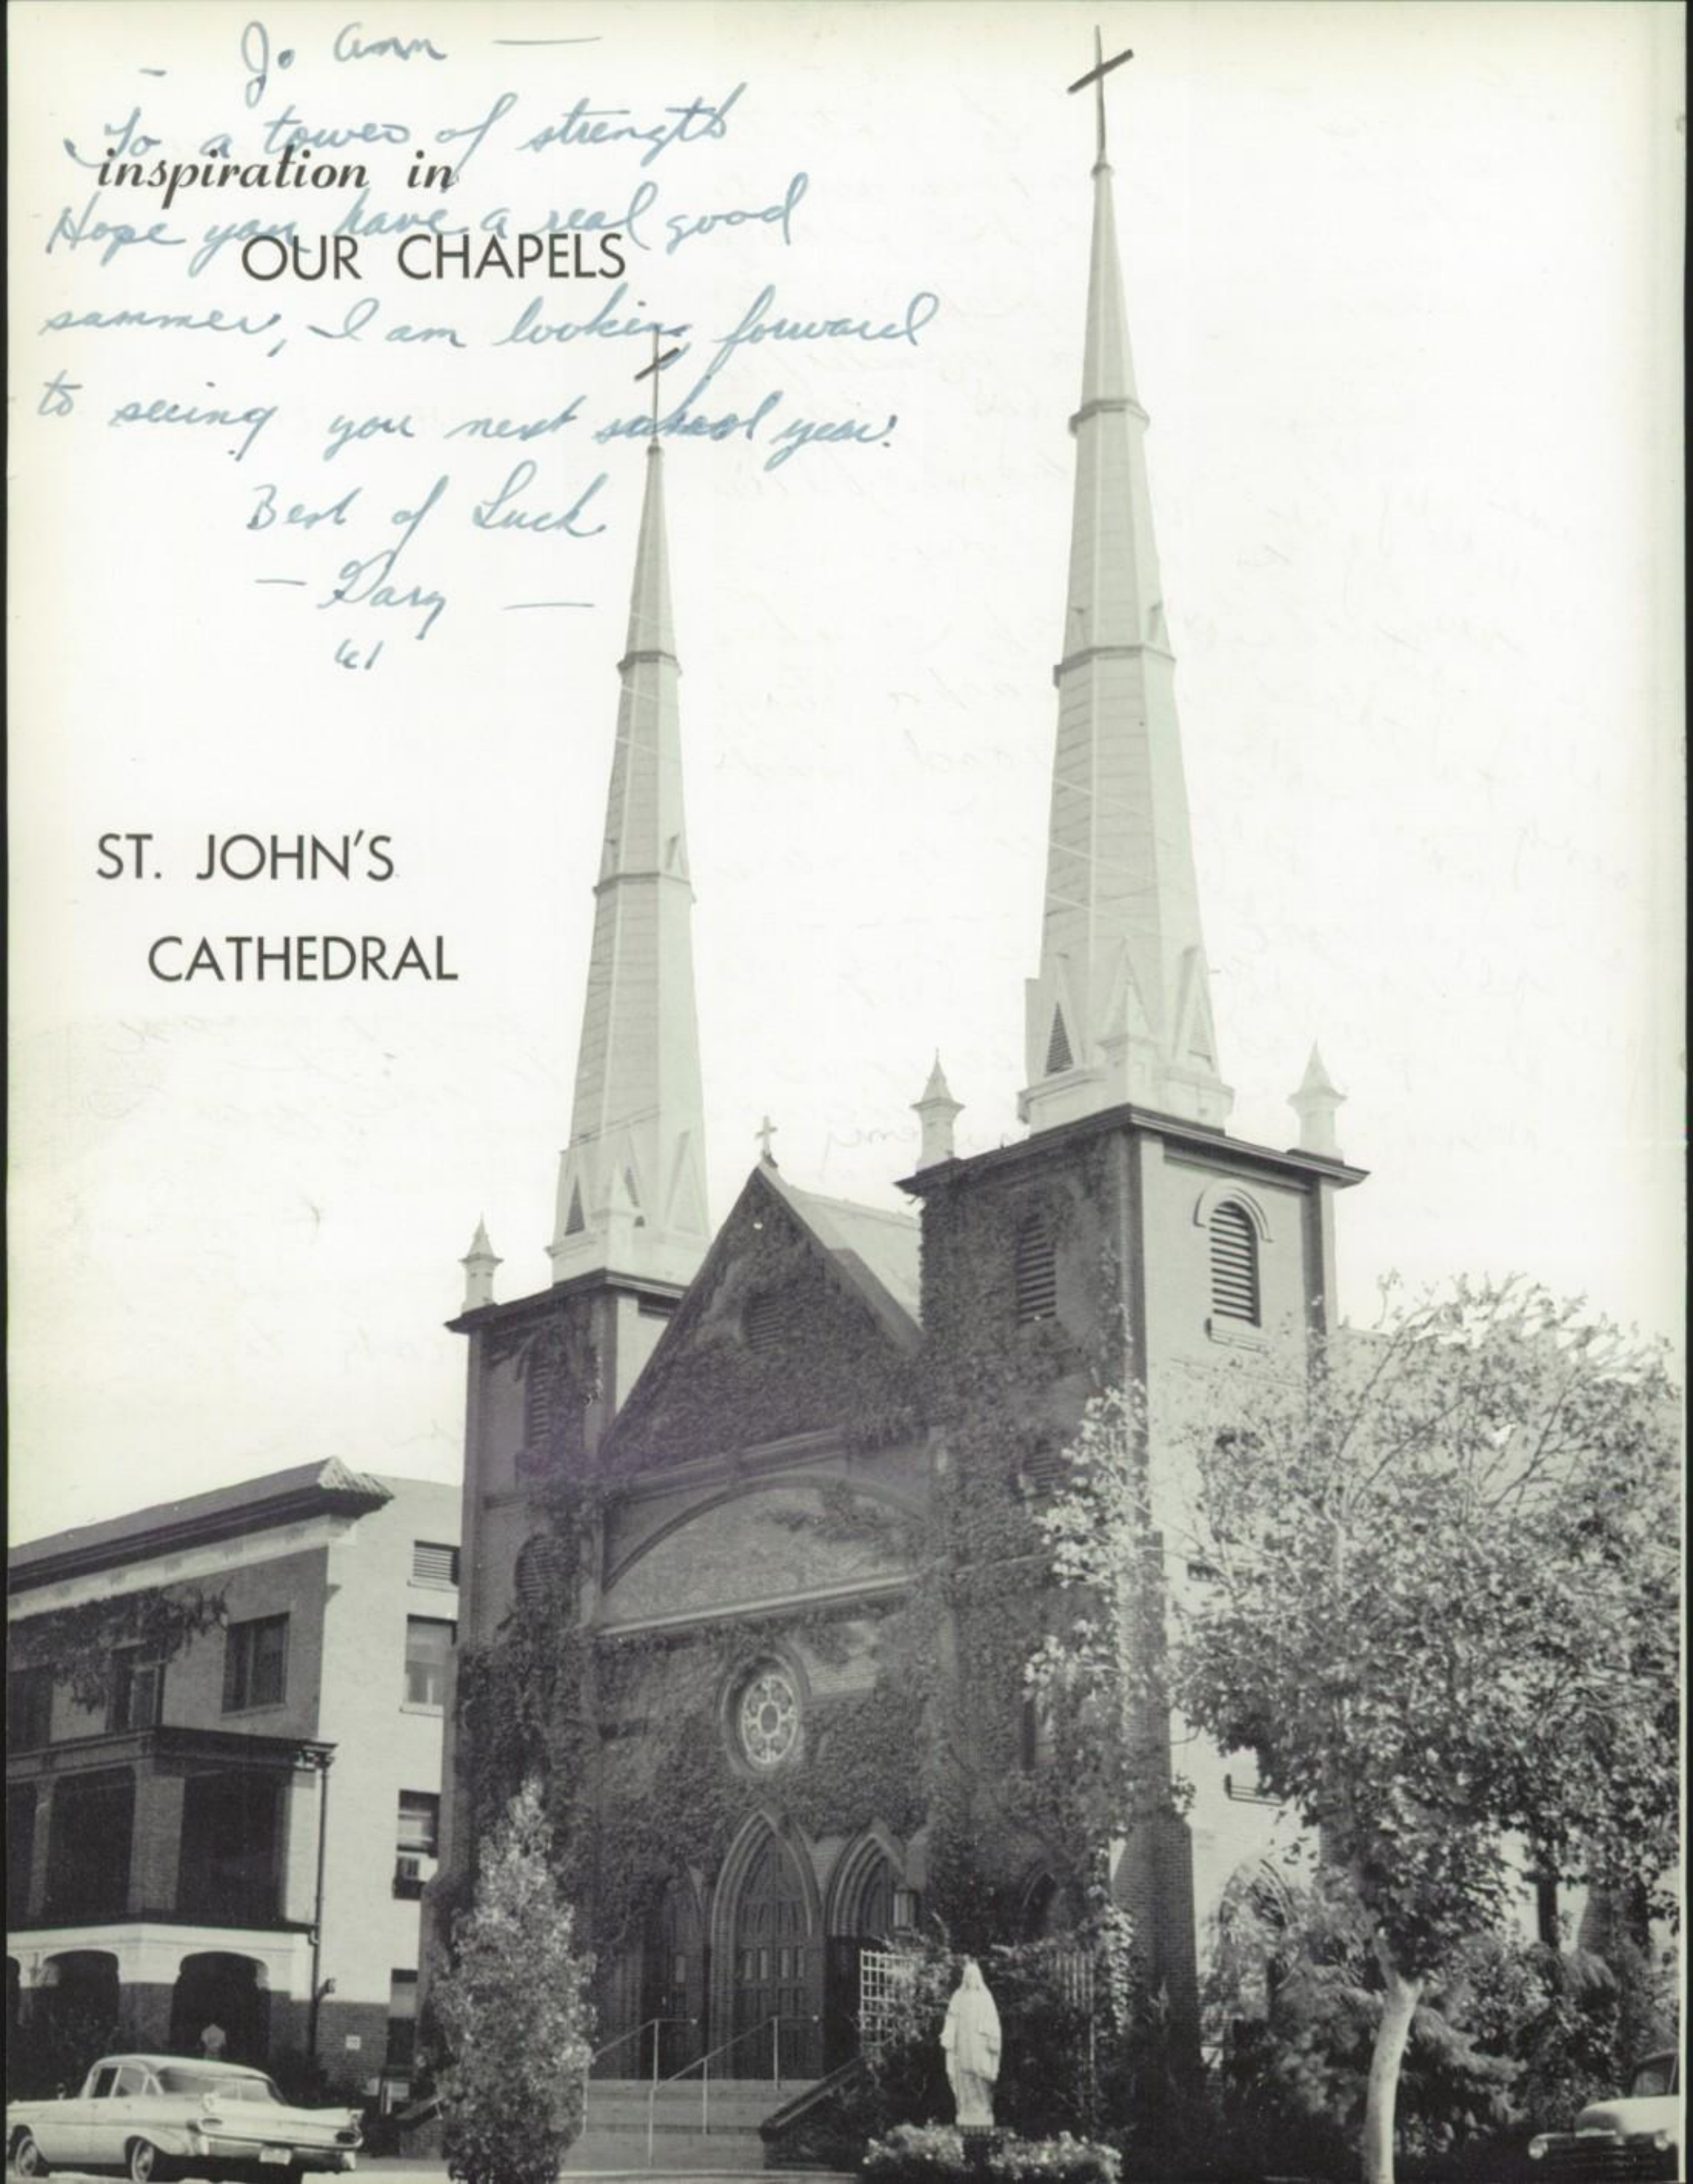
ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL



The Most Reverend Aloysius S. Willinger, Bishop of Monterey-Fresno.

To the students of San Joaquin Memorial, our Bishops are understanding friends, wise counselors, and men dedicated to material, intellectual, spiritual interests of San Joaquin Memorial.

They are God-centered men building for us a school where we can find that supernatural quality which will be our strength for the future years as workers in the Mystical Body. Their ideals, their plans, their spirit will continue to be the power directing the destiny of San Joaquin. To you, our Bishops, we are grateful.

During the years in which you have officiated in the Monterey-Fresno Diocese, Memorial has become far more than a high school; it has become a center of Christian education, a center for the spiritual training of today's youth, from which will come the Catholic leaders of our diocese.

Because of the things which you hold in promise, we have an even more hopeful future. We thank you and wish you continued success with the assurance that you will always remain in our prayers.

The Most Reverend Harry Clinch, Auxiliary Bishop of Monterey-Fresno.

OUR ADMINISTRATORS

Smiling, Father stops to answer some questions of great importance.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS — Sister Emile Louise, C.S.C., Co-Principal; Father Arthur, O.F.M.; Father Aloysius Dot, C.M.F.; Monsignors Joseph McGoldrick, Thomas McGovern, Matthew O'Brien; Father Stieger, President; Monsignor James G. Dowling; Father Edward C. Poschen; Monsignor James Bennis; Fathers Bernard Hopkins, George Costabile, William Dogson; Brother Edwin, F.S.C., Co-Principal.

To you, Our Administrators, we, the students of San Joaquin Memorial can only say a deep, very sincere, "Thank you!"

Thank you, Board of Pastors, for your unceasing, ever vigilant work to keep Memorial the best! Your pastoral zeal in determining the financial policy of our school, as well as providing for the future improvement, has enabled us to grow both spiritually and intellectually by affording us the opportunity of attending this, a Catholic school.

Just as we depend on you for the future of our school, so we realize, that you too look to us, relying on our Catholic training for the moral, Christian, and Catholic future of Fresno. Your prayers and your sacrifices on our behalf will not be forgotten, for . . . we shall go forward with Christ in our hearts and Truth on our lips!

Thank you, Mrs. Correia, for your conscientious attention to the details of office routine and for unfailing courtesy to those who call upon your services.

OUR COUNSELORS

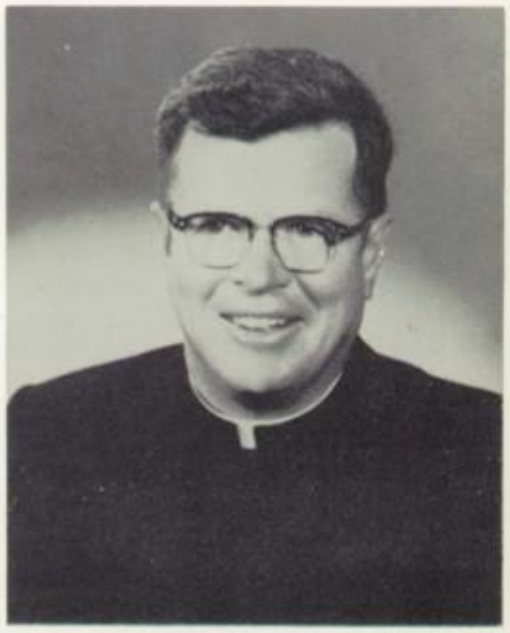
guidance from

Thank you, Monsignor Dowling. Thank you a thousand times, for only in forthcoming years, can we possibly be able to appreciate the finest of secondary educations received through your efforts and those of your assistant, Monsignor Hannon. When we leave school, we will be able to meet the challenge of the adult world, for you have given us the means to do so.

Brother Edwin, thank you for the kind and fatherly interest you have taken in the boys' student body and in all students at San Joaquin Memorial. Your sincere friendliness will never be forgotten by the many for whom you have spent and are spending your days.

Father Negro, you occupy a special place in each of our hearts. It is enough to say that through you, "the light shone in the darkness, and the darkness DID comprehend it. Thank you, our spiritual guide.

Sister Emile Louise, your happy smiles, while working for us, have given us the incentive to feel work can be, and is, a pleasure. All through the years your thoughtfulness and your consideration have endeared you to the hearts of the girls of San Joaquin Memorial. Because of you our campus is clean, our programs function smoothly, and our days are happy.



Monsignor Patrick Hannon, Assistant Superintendent of Schools.

STUDENT COUNCIL

If you happened to be sitting on the arcade after school on any Monday night, you might have noticed a short dark-haired girl dashing down the senior lawn to the office. This is Marilyn King, our girls' Student Body President. With a smile on her face and a cheery greeting for all, she tackles her job with spirit and enthusiasm. Her sparkling personality contributes much to her outstanding leadership.

Another important figure in our student government is Len Paolillo. As Student Body treasurer he oversees the school funds and signs numerous checks for purchases of the student body. Besides performing these duties, Len maintains a high scholastic average. This, along with his loyalty and devotion to the school, qualifies him as an excellent student officer.

STUDENT LEADERS

Working with Marilyn in school activities is the very capable boys' Student Body President, Jack Caton. He finds time to do such things as attend A.S.C. meetings, N.S.L. meetings, and Boys' Federation, as well as preside over Student Council. His word carries weight at SJM. His friendliness and warmth make him outstandingly popular at Memo.

Another vivacious personality around the campus is Suzie Snead. With her flashing smile and gay hello she records the minutes, writes the thank you notes, sends out letters, and countless other 'ittle tasks. Her popularity grows daily.

Student government at S.J.M., embodied in a group consisting of the class presidents and leaders of all campus organizations, functions through the Student Council, which is presided over by the Student Body officers and moderated by the Co-principals.

This Board coordinates all student activity and serves as a link between students and faculty.

Convening bi-weekly, the council discusses activities and decides questions of policy affecting the entire student body. At these meetings class officers have an opportunity to ask questions, to express their opinions, and to discuss their own particular problems. In this way all students are kept well informed.

Since the Co-principals serve as moderators, leaders have a good opportunity to go straight to the top to find out exactly what they can and cannot do. Announcements concerning the school calendar and upcoming events are also made known here.

Courses in religion are designed to acquaint each student in Religion with the life, personality, and teachings of Christ and His Church; to impart a knowledge of its contributions to civilization, its moral standards of right living, its Catholic viewpoint upon world problems; to illuminate every means of personal holiness and spiritual power which enables every student in this course to take his place in the adult world.

culture is...

Whether it be the classic beauty of the Mother Tongue, the modern slanguage, or merely beatnik argot, English is the most used, the most abused item in daily living. For that reason, English holds a most important place in SJM's curriculum—four years being required. In addition, however, journalism and speech may augment elective points in that field. And so, from the basic I am, you are, he is to "To be or not to be," English goes on through the four years — ah, yes — on through life.

LANGUAGES

if from our hearts

Is Brother George's motto in Latin I, veni, vidi, vici?

A well-rounded individual is the aim of the S.J.M. curriculum. The language courses fulfill their part by educating members in the culture of foreign people as well as speaking the language. Learning through experience is offered through the various activities sponsored on Campus. Students leave the four-year Latin and three-year Spanish courses well versed in customs and traditions, with a full knowledge of the language. For Latin students there are the Latin Banquet and the State J. C. L. conventions in the spring. A tradition for club members is the caroling tour of classrooms at Christmas.

SPIRIT

In publishing this yearbook, the staff has found that many extra hours go into such things as copy, cropping photos, headings, transferring, and typing. When the bell rings for the dismissal of school, it is only the signal for the staff to report to the publishing room to begin work. And what work! There are countless takes and retakes of pictures, numerous trips to the photographer.

Also there are pages to lay out, captions to write, copy to check, pictures to number, names to spell correctly, lost articles to find, and ————! It has numerous compensations!

Under the wise guidance of Sister Patricianne and Brother Columban, this utter confusion becomes the Spirit of '60.

OF '60

We do have our reward in the pleasure found in working together and by capturing the spirit of our high school life within these pages.

The enjoyment of the students, the excellent co-operation of all the members of the staff, the companionship and association of working together, the kindness and patience of the photographers, make the publication of the annual worthwhile.

And so in reviewing photographically The Place, The Leaders, The People, and The Life, we hope that you will catch the true spirit found on the campus of San Joaquin Memorial during the year of 1960.

GIRLS' EDITOR-IN-CHIEF — Jane Adams

SENIOR, JANE ADAMS ENGAGED AS EDITOR

Ask anyone on the Red and Blue staff, "Which girl does most for our school paper?" The answer will almost certainly be Jane Adams.

Jane is co-editor of S.J.M.'s paper, which comes out once in six weeks. Setting publication dates, page preparation, and meeting deadlines are routine duties of this busy miss.

After assigning issue dates, Jane Adams, with co-editor, Brian Coughlan, draws up a page plan for the front page. The next step is assigning articles to each of the first page writers; Jane herself often writes articles of news, or editorials. Editing of stories is done before the "heads" (headlines) are put on, the latter offering a challenge to Jane's vocabulary and journalistic talent. When the articles have been typed, they are sent to the printers, where "galleys" are made. Jane cuts out one set for "paste-ups," and the other set of "galleys" is proofread and marked to indicate any errors. Arranging the stories as planned, inserting pictures and corrections, and finally, taking the plans to the printers for publication are the climaxing duties of the editor for each edition.

CUB REPORTERS LEARN TRADE

It is generally known by all who have stopped to consider its origin, that the Red and Blue is a product of the journalism class, be they editors or reporter-writers. But what do the students in this co-educational class do between the issues?

Regardless of the fact that this class has a special duty to perform, the putting out of the paper, like any other class it has a textbook and regular lessons. The "work sheets," at the end of each chapter give the young journalists actual practice in the theory of news or feature writing.

Quarter and semester exams taken from the material in the text and the grade on this test are averaged with the individual grades received on articles written for the paper.

Being an elective, the class generally has no homework, although work sheets sometimes require additional effort outside of school.

Beside preparing her own page, Jane Adams is always ready, willing, and able to assist other Red and Blue editors or writers with a problem.

This senior girl has had two previous years of newspaper experience. As a sophomore, she wrote for first page; and in her junior year she was editor for the second. She was also elected to the Quill and Scroll Society that year.

SPORTS PAGE EDITORS
Linda Longcor and Frank McLeod

SPORTS EDITORS SHOW INITIATIVE

Linda Longcor and Frank McLeod have ably served the sports page of Red and Blue, editorially speaking.

Linda puts her wits to work searching out girls' sports news, assigning stories, and usually doing some of the writing herself. Her experience as a sophomore reporter has served as preparation for this exacting job.

Having started writing for the paper as a freshman, Frank McLeod has had a fine background for editing sports news. Among his contributions is the initiaton of a regular column, "Fgures of the Past," in which great Memorial alumni-athletes are honored.

RED AND BLUE CAPTURES AWARDS

St. Mary's Press Conference has awarded the Red and Blue the Louis F. Le Fevre trophy four years consecutively.

This honor was first achieved in '56 along with a second place at the annual Columbia Scholastic Press Association. In '59 this same group gave the Red and Blue first honors among the schools of its field.

The Louis F. Le Fevre trophy signifies the best paper in co-instructional Catholic schools in the western states. It has been awarded to the Red and Blue from '56 through '59.

The Catholic School Press Association awarded Red and Blue its highest place honor, All-Catholic in 1958-59. This was the .....time the paper was so rated. In 195., the award was not so high, First Honors.

COUGHLAN DISPLAYS TALENT AS EDITOR AND CHIEF

The role of Co-editor is carried out by Brian Caughlan. He has proved to be a very capable and reliable worker. This has been shown by the remarkable spirit of co-operation the Red and Blue staff possesses. Besides the many required hours of work Brian puts in, he still has time to remain active in student affairs and social life, thereby, keeping in touch with the stream of Memorial activity. His creative mind and flare for organization aid much in the present life of the publication.

Brian has a regular column in which he expresses a keen sense of literary values. He is the official organizer, together with his co-editor, Jane Adams, and can usually be found in the press room after school busily preparing the next edition, in which the editors perform a double function as first page editors. Under this editorship the Red and Blue will hold on to its fine rating as a high school newspaper.

BOYS' EDITOR-IN-CHIEF — Brian Coughlan

ACCURATE INFORMATION HIGHLIGHTS SPORTS COVERAGE

Besides having an intricate knowledge of the game, the sports writer should be careful to have all names and scores verified and double-checked. He must be able to get all the facts and figures such as substitutions, fouls, etc.

In football the reporter must get accurate figures in yards gained, first downs, touchdowns.

In basketball he must get all substitutions, points and fouls. In baseball he must get accurate figures in hits, runs, errors and names of local and opposing standouts. Good sports coverage also requires accurate final scores.

John Hess, Dave Goggin — Streetwalkers

PERSEVERANCE, WITS RESULT IN ADS

The bywords are "busy" "dependable" and "prompt." What are they bywords to? The answer is, the elite tandem of Red and Blue Advertising Managers, namely, Dave Goggin and John Hess. This hard working duo is responsible for the numerous ads which appear on the club page section and which help to pay the publishing costs of the paper. Dave and John solicit advertisements from the various Fresno merchants and make important connections and contacts, which can be of good use later on in performing their vital function.

Before the paper reaches the students, various competent staff members work diligently on it.

Photographers Roger Oraze and Jeanne Allard

SCANNING THE CAMPUS

Working hard to keep our readers pictorially informed concerning the high lights of our student life are our alert camera carriers, Jeanne Allard and Roger Oraze. Covering all games, rallies, assemblies, organizational meetings, and informal campus sights, they have built up an excellent collection of contemporary San Joaquin history in pictures. Some of the most outstanding have appeared in Red and Blue.

Always tactful and accommodating, they showed much patience and sacrifice both in arranging pictorial scenes to please the different groups for whom they worked and in taking and retaking shots that did not satisfy.

An unofficial member of the staff of photographers is Brother Hilary, who has been more than generous with his time and talents. Taking the pictures and doing a rush job in developing them, he has saved many a publication deadline. Without our photographers and their cameras, publications would be lacking a certain interest and variety.

VARIED JOBS PRODUCE PAPER

The majority of these are duly recognized for their work. Yet some are never spoken of. Among these are the typists and the circulation staff.

When an article has been written and approved, it must be typed. The articles are given out and often one typist gets four or five articles.

The effect of their help is felt in planning pages, proof reading, and other areas.

Colleen Cleary, Angela DeBenedetto, Nicki Testa, Carole LeBlanc, Pat Wilcock, Lillian Damiani, Rebecca Del Real, Maureen Sargol and Lenore Castagna are the girls without whose help the paper would almost be forced to fold up.

Speaking of folding, the papers don't just land in each classroom, folded, miraculously. Again, hard workers are on the job.

On the morning when the paper comes out, the circulation staff meets in the press room and sets to work. Papers are folded, stacked, counted, and distributed. A certain number then are folded for mailing.

Pat Housman heads this staff. She is assisted by Dorlee Kingen, Maureen Sargol, Carolyn Kasaian, Rosalyn Kasaian and Terry Pagliasotti.

Because these people faithfully do their jobs for each issue, the Red and Blue has been successful in punctually meeting deadlines.

EDITORS EXHIBIT CALM AMID CHAOS

Where are the galleys? Who took the scissors? How does the page look? These are the sounds which emanate from the press room as the Red and Blue staff prepares the coming issue. Most of these mutterings will be found coming out of the persevering, tireless editors of the paper.

The polished look of the finished product does not betray the hours of hard work and, at times, near frustration experienced by the editors. There are days of careful planning as the stories are first selected, then assigned, and finally received from the writers. They next proceed to the typists, and then the editors do the brain-breaking work of composing headlines. The articles come back from the printer, and the editor pulls out his scissors and pastes up the dummies. The results are sent back to the printer, and the final copy of the paper is received — a moment in which the editors truly take pride in their work.

Second page editors Tim Menezes, Kate Steen.
Fourth page editors Carol Ann Skibicki, Tony Navarro.

FEATURE, CLUB NEWS HEADED EXCELLENTLY

Editing the second page which handles features are Kate Steen and Tim Menezes. Kate gave a summary of the work on this page. "We do our best to bring angles, humor, and entertainment to our page for the necessary variety of the paper.

"The features usually include anything which will be of interest to the majority of the student body."

She is irritated by writers who "try to get by with the least they can do."

Tim is annoyed by "all the little things that go wrong."

Careful planners for the fourth page are Tony Navarro and Carol Skibicki. It is under their guidance that cue Memorialites are kept well informed on the future as well as past club news.

Says senior Tony, of his fourth page activities, "Club news is very challenging, especially when there are scads of events going on all the time!" Carol, who is a junior, and somewhat quieter, but just as steady a worker, says, "I really enjoy being club editor."

Fourth page sounds unimportant but actually it is seen and read just as much as front page, and therefore, our paper, as well as the school, is judged by its appearance."

Because of Tony's and Carol's ingenuity, ability ,and hard work, fourth page news has been given a new, higher standing than ever before!

EDITORS LAUD FEATURE STAFF

Feature editors Tim Menezes and Kate Steen were blessed with fine talented writers this year.

The boys' sole representative is Mark Warmerdam, especially famous for his "Rod of the Month" series. Not only is his work "filled with apt descriptions and ingenuity throughout," but Mark also doubled as the publication's hard working cartoonist.

Responsible for many of the excellent stories on Page Two of the Red and Blue was Sue Casperian, concerning her efforts, Kate commented, "She is a hardworking, clever, and conscientious writer."

Newcomer Agnes Higgins has an eye for the angle, especially, in leads. As do all of her co-workers, this sophomore does all types of features, from personality sketches to entertaining articles.

An expert in humorous stories is Penny Harrington. Although noted for her versatility, Penny specializes in the personality sketch.

Accuracy, punctuality ,and variety of style are high on the list of a good writer's requirements. Terry McSherry possesses these and numerous other qualities that distinguish her as a standout among the feature writers. During the year she informed and amused student readers with color, interest, and a straight-forward style.

Supplying the first page composition, under the editorship of Jane and Brian, for the Red and Blue are Marilyn King, Roger Oraze, Joan Schiffler and Suzanne Snead. These writers blend their talents resulting in the cosmopolitan first page that S.J.M. students have found so interesting and informative.

Marilyn has been composing articles since her sophomore year and Roger has been a part of the staff during his seniorship. Suzanne and Joan joined the paper as sophomores and have been supplying material for the issues ever since.

CAROL'S COGITATIONS
by Carol Ann Rizzo

Christmas is one of the most beautiful seasons of the year. It's so impressive with all its dime store finery, decorated homes, and huge holiday dinners.

There is something special about the nights of the season. They are colder and crisper, the stars are brighter and the moon is larger. Noses are redder and the lips are chapped but the hearts are warmer.

Everyone's happy, everyone's making money fast and spending it faster.

You love the feeling, the glow, the spirit. You love the money, the gifts, the food. You trim a tree, build a fire, stand under the mistletoe. You bake a cake, make some fudge, eat too much.

You love every minute of it because it's Christmas, and it's good. Every bit of it is good, perhaps that is why you love it.

This is only half the story. Let's look at the other half.

It's Christmas eve and you go to Midnight Mass. You can hardly keep your eyes open while the priest sings the Gloria but you force yourself because it's Christmas and it's beautiful.

At the Communion rail you receive Jesus and you're happy, truly happy. This, too, is good, no, this is the best.

After Mass you make your way to the manger. You kneel and watch. You imagine you are really there, and you are. Maybe you light a candle or say a prayer. Maybe you just say "hello" to the newborn Baby.

This is Christmas. This is a whole Christmas. How many times have you spent only half a Christmas? Think of it for just a minute . . . "And entering the house, they found the Child with Mary, His Mother, and falling down they worshipped Him."

NEW, OLD CUBS COVER SPORTS

Rick Reuter has been writing sports for the Red and Blue for two years. He was an All-City Performer in 1958 for football and in 1959 for baseball. Rick is a 6'2" Senior and he heads the Intra-Mural activities for the boys department. Rick has a sports column article in the paper entitled "Figures of the Past."

The next writer is Jean Schiffler. Jean has also written sports for two years. She is a 5'3½" junior and has a twin sister, Joan. She has served as junior class president and in her sophomore year she held the office of Sodality treasurer. Ths year she Is also head of the Publicity Committee in Senior Sodality.

The third sports-writer is Ron Reeg. Ron is a 5'11" senior and this is his first year on the Red and Blue. In his junior year he was a member of the 'B' basketball team. He was co-editor of the Christmas insert for the Red and Blue this year.

EDITOR'S PEEVE

Handling the work of editors for the fourth page of the Red and Blue are Carole Ann Skibicki and Tony Navarro. This page of the paper deals with the club news of the school. Their job is to "consolidate and co-ordinate articles concerning clubs and groups active in the school." Ads are also published on the page to help defray the expenses of the publication.

When asked, "What irritates you when you are reading an article for your page?"

Carole Ann said, "My pet peeve is editing an article which has every adjective in the dictionary in it."

SON

The losing streak which for the past six years has plagued the San Joaquin Memorial football teams has ended in the 1959 season. The fighting Panthers compiled an amazing 6-1-1 season, winning the Catholic Championship by downing Garces 13-6 and placing second in the North Sequoia League.

Although this year the team lacked size and number, nevertheless little was wanting in its ability and driving desire. During the season the varsity ran a string of six consecutive victories, the longest since 1949.

The Memorial coaching staff, too, was something to be admired. Coach Grady and Coach Craig molded the Panthers into the greatest team since 1954, when S.J.M. won the N.S.L. Nor did the team ever let up; it always played its hardest with one tremendous purpose in mind, to rebuild the spirit at San Joaquin Memorial.

The seniors who played their last games did themselves proud and can know they belong to one of Memorial's greatest teams. The seniors were Jack Caton, Rick Reuter, Rich Turney, Vic Espinosa, Jerry Manuzsak, Rich De Benedetto, Rudy Verduzco, Brian Coughlan, Leon Bernard, and Bob Zingarelli.

Three Panthers, having been named to the KMJ-KMJ-TV All City Football Team, topped off a wonderful year. Leading the list were Captain Jack Caton, halfback; Lincoln Marini, end; and Mel Deaile, guard.

Senior football players who sparked this year's team are (kneeling), Leon Bernard, Brian Coughlan, Rudy Verduzco. (Standing) Jack Caton, Vic Espinoza, Bob Zingarelli, Rich Turney, Rick Reuter.

The candidates for the homecoming queen at the Washington Union game were Jeanne Allard, Sandy Schoettler, Queen Annette Chilberto, Angela DeBenedetto, Michele Semper, and Helen Badasci.

SJM 13 GARCES 6

The Panthers, led by Jack Caton, Rich Turney, Jerry Manuszak, Lincoln Marini, Al Morales, and Mel Deaile, garnered the Central Catholic Championship. SJM's T.D.s were scored by Seniors Jack Caton and Rich Reuter. The defensive unit held Garces scoreless until the last play of the game.

SJM 14 CARUTHERS 6

In a game marred by numerous errors, the Panthers hung on for dear life to preserve their second victory. The team was led by Jack Caton, who scored both touchdowns and starred on defense until he was injured in the second half. The defensive unit proved too tough for the Raiders, especially within the 20 yard line.

FOOTBALL

SJM 14 AVENAL 0

Holding Avenal to a minus one-yard rushing, the Panthers completed a sweep of their three non-league games. The middle of the line, Russ Dristas, Mel Deaile, and Vic Espinosa, continually opened holes for the hard running fullback, Len Paolillo. This combined with the passing of Tom McKeighan kept the visitors at bay.

SJM 32 CENTRAL 6

The finest effort of the year produced a victory over the Grizzlies in the first league game. The inspired play of senior halfback Rick Reuter led the team from a 6-6 half time score to the lopsided triumph. The line, led by Al Morales, opened big gaps in the enemy's forward wall which enabled the backs to storm downfield.

SJM 21 WASHINGTON 13

To cap the homecoming ceremonies the Panthers downed Washington to gain their fifth straight victory. Two tallies by Jack Caton and one by Len Paolillo put the game out of the foe's reach. The line, led by Russ Dristas and Al Morales, helped sustain the Memo drives downfield and held the Easton visitors in check.

Don Perachhi converts after a Panther score.

SJM 26 EL CAPITAN 0

Memorial initiated the football series with the newly built El Capitan High School with a lop-sided victory. Senior halfback, Bob Zingarelle, led the attack that was never held while the defense handed out their second shutout.

SJM 6 CHOWCHILLA 6

The Panthers were held to a tie by the winless Redskins. The Panthers started fast when a blocked punt was recovered in the end zone by Jerry Manuszak for six points. The game continued scoreless until about three minutes left, when a down and across pass netted Chowchilla their T.D. But the game was not over. The Panthers stormed down the field after the kick-off only to have the game end on the Chowchilla one yard line.

SJM 7 DOS PALOS 19

The Championship and final game of the season saw the Panthers suffer their first defeat. Dos Palos's Jim Faggon became the first back that our hard rock defensive unit could not hold. He scored all three of the Bronco scores and continually was on the loose. The crowd of nearly 5,000 had to wait until the final quarter for Memorial to score when Tom McKeighan hit Rich Turney on three consecutive passes good for 66 yards. The defensive unit, led by Jerry Reinhart and Alex Montanez, was able to keep the game scoreless at half.

THE SEASON

basketball educates

This year's Varsity team compiled a 7-3 league record and an over-all record of 9-8. The first part of the season found Coach Odell Johnson's five playing some of the top teams of the state and almost pulling a couple of upsets. The middle found the Panthers riddled with injuries, having Ron Delpit cracking his elbow and Jack Caton being confined to bed for the remainder of the season with mononucleosis. But the team pulled together to win five of their last six games.

Seven seniors—Rich Turney, Ralph Bessard, Jack Caton, Roger Oraze, Danny Cardenas, Harry Hernandez, and Eugene Arriet—played their final game against Dos Palos and contributed a major part to this year's success. Juniors—Tom McKeighan, Al Morales, Ron Delpit, Mike McCormick, and sophomore Russ Dristas also did their share.

But the real performer of the team was Rich Turney, the greatest player ever to don a Memorial uniform. He was elected to the Fresno All-City team two years running and also was placed on numerous all-star teams throughout the state. He broke the record for points during his two years as a Varsity member, and this year averaged 21 points a game and 19 rebounds.

Is he safe?

Although the S.J.M. Panthers did not fare too well in pre-season games, they pulled together and registered three straight league victories. They lost their opening encounter with El Capitan, 8-3. The team also reached the quarter finals in the Fresno Baseball Tournament, but were disqualified by Clovis after losing 9-3.

Fifty-four enthusiasts greeted Coach Dan Grady for the first track practice this year. Although the squad was inexperienced, many commendable performances were recorded. Setting school records were Russ Dristas and Pat Welsh. Russ put the shot over 48′ and was flirting with 50′ all season. Pat high jumped 5′8″ breaking the class B record in that event.

The Panthers entered the Dos Palos Tournament last April 9th. Bob Genusso and Freshman standout, Bill Schiavone, along with newcomer, Jack Selzer, all turned in excellent times although they did not place in their events.

With the squad made up exclusively of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors, the track future at San Joaquin looks quite good for next year.

The Girls' Athletic Association, formed to promote better sportsmanship both athletically and socially, is one of the most popular and active organizations among the girls. To maintain this spirit, the club sponsored many activities, two of which were intramural noon games and a "Squaw Valley" dance. On February 14, the annual playday, the GAA were hostesses for the schools in the surrounding area. The climax of the activities was the awards dinner at the end of the year.

The Board consisted of one representative from each home room section. At the board meetings the representatives, the moderators, and the officers hashed out various and numerous problems, which were presented to all the members at the monthly Tuesday meetings. Democracy is the keynote of this organization and individual members have the opportunity and privilege of open discussion.

SWIMMING

That's what you get for telling!

After a very tense wait, the S.J.M. swim team finally emerged to begin its 1960 year. Among the most interesting aspects of the swim team was the weather. Rain or shine the team was out in the pool pulling at the water to defend S.J.M. Colorful royal blue swim suits made the team "sparkle." Along with these came the sweat-suits, white with blue letters for the girls, and blue with white letters for the boys. Practices were held in the S.J.M. pool, but most of the meets were at other schools. Picnic lunches and blankets were taken to all-day meets, and were at the disposal of the entire team. The coaches, Miss Kim Browning and Mr. Joe Gerardin, worked strenuously for team unity.

COMPLIMENTS OF

SENIOR CLASS 1960

OUR LAST WORDS . . .

Co-editors Sandy and Roger

- Joanne -
During the past few years I've been here, one of the first things I remember is your acquaintance. Don't be around next year but I won't forget your friendship and I hope we see each other in the future.
Your friend always,
Roger '60
The Warrior

Ever since the beginning of the year when the Spirit of '60 began to take shape and to capture the elan of a school year, it has experienced the assistance, the understanding, and the encouragement of many sincerely interested and helpful people. For us, the Editors, it is in perfect order that we express our deep appreciation to every one who has made the annual possible. Now the work is finished, and we put the results of our labors into your hands to enjoy, to cherish, to laugh over in years to come. Your appreciation will be our reward.

We acknowledged gratefully:
The kind assistance of our moderators—SISTER PATRICIANNE and BROTHER COLUMBAN
The understanding and help of the ADMINISTRATION and FACULTY
The generosity, patience, and efficiency of MR. JOHN FRUGULTI
The good suggestions and good pictures of BUD, FRANK, and RALPH
The versatility of BROTHER HILARY for his kindness in supplying those last minute pictures
The unfailing enthusiasm and support of the STUDENT BODY
The untiring and unfailing "nose-to-the-grind" work of the STAFF
The thoughtful reminders and efficiency of the MIRRO-GRAPHIC YEAR-BOOK COMPANY.
The interest and guidance of our representative, JACK LAUGHLIN
The wonderful help of all our good ADVERTISERS, because of whose financial support the SPIRIT OF '60 IS.

-Joanne-
Be good next year and make your senior year better than ever!! ok?
Love
Jeanne
Allard

We would like to say a sincere thank-you to all the help on our campus, the ladies in the cafeteria, the janitors, and all other maintenance men.

Joann,

Best of luck to a really loyal person. I have enjoyed knowing you for the past few years. See you next year if possible

Love,
Hela

Dear Joanne,

Well, we've had our little ups and downs - and that for sure, but I've always been partial to you since we were kids, you've just kinda appealed to me, even if I have told you to shut-up sometimes. Well, I guess that just part of maturing. Believe me, I'm still your friend even if we aren't dating. Until next year keep your same nosie little self.

JoAnne - To one of the friendliest girls on campus. I sure have been misunderstanding at times and I sure hope you forgive me. JoAnn, remember our freshmen year when we started to be friends. Just look how close we are now and I sure hope we remain as close as we are right now. I can't wait till next year because I know also the class of "61" will remain tops in everything. One thing we're going to miss is the class of "60" because they're the ones who started the great spirit at S. J. in regard to games, dances, rallies, activites, etc. Don't you agree.

I sure hope that I find someone next year and I sure hope you do, too.

There was an incident which happen a week ago which is now settled and I'm sure that it will never happen again.

Okay!

Thanks for every-thing you've done for me

Love

Agnes

Well I don't know quit where to begon when it comes to signing your annual. I have so much to thank you for. We have had so much fun this last year going to the games, dances, party and out to the west side I think we spend most of our time either going our coming from there. It has been great. What fun it was that day out at Home farm, and your ride through the mud, I will never forget that either. Joanne it has been just great. I am so glad that you and ---- are getting along. I hope it stays that way.

Love always,
Joan

JO-JO
It has been great knowing you all these years (5.) Your abundant personality has permeated the arcades of Memo for the past 3 and may you be with us next as we become the best seniors ever.

keep up the good spirit because we will need it next year.

-Joanne-

To a wonderful person with a lot of spunk! We've really had some good times together in our three years of high school. I hope next year doesn't go as fast as this one did, because then it will be all over and we'll have to really start growing up! I don't think I want to ever do that.

Be good this summer and I'll drop you a few lines from Montrey.
